

Air 1 provides an invaluable service by broadcasting music/programming not available otherwise. Air 1's programming is unique because it reaches us with a positive uplifting message not otherwise heard in our community. This message is a positive alternative to what is heard by our children on the other local stations.